Using online communities of practice to complement health research: experiences from Healthcare Information for All

Programme

Time (CET)	Item	Presenter
2 – 2.05PM	Welcome	Unni Gopinathan — Senior Scientist, Norwegian Institute of Public Health
2.05 – 2.15PM	HIFA and research partnerships	Neil Pakenham-Walsh, Coordinator of the HIFA campaign (Healthcare Information For All); Co-director of the Global Healthcare Information Network
2.15 – 2.30PM	Co-producing research processes with HIFA: experiences from two health systems research projects • mHealth-Innovate: exploring healthcare workers' informal and innovative uses of mobile phone messaging in LMICs • SUPPORT-SYSTEMS: exploring how decision-making processes for health systems strengthening and universal health coverage can be made more inclusive, responsive and accountable	Claire Glenton — Professor of Evidence-Based Practice, Western Norway University of Applied Sciences Unni Gopinathan
2.30 – 2.45PM	Participating in HIFA forums to share knowledge and inform research: motivation, value and ideas for improvement	Venus Mushininga, Program Manager, NCDs, Ministry of Health and Child Care, Zimbabwe Tarry Asoka, Independent consultant in health and development
2.45 – 3PM	Questions

This webinar is jointly organized by the SUPPORT-SYSTEMS and mHEALTH-INNOVATE research consortiums

NIPH — Norwegian Institute of Public Health

UNIVERSITY OF GHANA

KEMRI — Wellcome Trust

UiO : Centre for Development and the Environment — University of Oslo

Western Norway University of Applied Sciences

Healthcare Information For All — HIFA.org

NTNU | Norwegian University of Science and Technology

MAKERERE UNIVERSITY

Funded by

The Research Council of Norway